Registration

Workshop registration opens Saturday at 9:00 a.m. at the conference venue. You will find respective signs leading your way to the conference office and lecture hall.

Recreational facilities Schloss Waldthausen

The workshop venue offers a wide variety of facilities for recreation after and before the official workshop program. Facilities include soccer field, bowling, and sauna. All facilities can be used upon reservation at the reception. Also, the location is nice for short hiking excursions and evening walks. So, do not forget to bring sports shoes and comfortable clothing if you want to make use of these facilities.

Internet/Conference technology

Free wireless internet access is provided in the main building and in the conference room. The room is equipped with a projector and white board.

Phone

The country code for calling landlines in Germany is "0049." The area code for Mainz is "06131." If you want to call a landline in Germany using a local phone, just dial area code + extension. For receiving calls on a local phone from outside Germany, the caller needs to dial 0049 + area code (without the "0" of the area code).

Weather forecast

Summer has finally arrived in the area. For the latest weather update before packing your suitcase, please visit:
